

ABOUT

Raising the roof with her powerful, dynamic vocals to a brimming sonance embellished with euphonious melodies, eclectic rhythms, and striking transitional elements, KIRZTEN is the artist project of NYC-born music technologist, electronic producer, and singer-songwriter, Reana Villanueva.

KIRZTEN’s sound travels between distinct sonic realms, bridging electronic with cinematic, pop, and alternative music, and her lyrical canvas highlights messages that encourage others to manifest their desires, find their voice, and break the barriers of unapologetic expression. Known for her captivating productions, multimedia projects, and live electronic performances, KIRZTEN aspires to create empowering music that elevates and uplifts listeners.

“KIRZTEN is a wonderful musician whose debut single, ‘Breakthrough’, is something you need to stream immediately. I was so thrilled she was willing to visit with us and discuss her music, challenges, and a bit more. Sounds like so many great things are on the way!”

“With its vibrant atmosphere and positive tone, ‘Breakthrough’ reflects what an effective electronic dance track can achieve, positioning it as a solid and engaging starting point for KIRZTEN’s solo career. The harmonious backing vocals interact smoothly with the pulsating beat, shaping a vibrant electronic track that feels dynamic, well-structured, and memorable without relying on excessive embellishment.”
